

NO RUNS FOR THE ST. LOUIS.

NEW YORK WHITEWASH THEM BY CERVER BALL PLATING.

The Brooklyn's Surprise Their Admirers by Winning Two Games from the Cleveland, Chicago Beasts' Baltimore, While the Boston Mary the Louisville Testers-Cincinnati Defeats Philadelphia and Pittsburgh Wins from Washington.

The thousands of baseball cranks in this city and Brooklyn have reason to rejoice this morning over the splendid pairing of the two local teams. The New Yorks showed that it was possible to put up a strong winning game away from home by defeating the St. Louis team for the second time yesterday. They even made the downfall of Von der Ahen's men harder to bear by shutting them out without a run and scoring eleven runs themselves. The Brooklyn's achieved the remarkablefeat of winning two games from the Cleveland. Fouts' men were somewhat crippled, too, so that their victories appear all the more praiseworthy. The Chicago must be playing pretty hot ball just now to be able to win two games out of four with the Baltimore, and the crushing defeat they administered to Johnson's men yesterday is liable to impress even those who know him best. The Boston's had their usual piece with the Louisville, and the Pittsburgh took their third straight game from the Washington. The Brooklyn's won at last in Cincinnati, and allowed Comiskey's men to take the crippled Philadelphia into account. The standing of the first place clubs become most interesting every day. Baltimore's latest victory puts the former's lead down to forty-seven points. The Pittsburgh held their third straight game from the Washington. The Philadelphia, Cleveland, and New Yorks are so close together that a few games are liable to reverse the order. The New York may play three hard games in Chicago, beginning to-day, while the Brooklyn's open in Pittsburgh with a similar series. The results:

New York, 11; St. Louis, 0
Brooklyn, 10; Cleveland, 6 (first game).
Brooklyn, 5; Cleveland, 2 (second game).
Boston, 12; Louisville, 2.
Cleveland, 13; Baltimore, 4.
Cincinnati, 7; Philadelphia, 3.
Pittsburgh, 11; Washington, 4.

St. Louis, June 27.—The New Yorks beat the Browns in great shape to-day, not one of the home team crossing the rubber. Victorious pitcher, Weller, was opposed to Harry and Miller. Both were excellent in good form, but the miserable attempts of support given to Hawley were discouraging, errors being made when they would do the work. The New Yorks got a hit in the fourth, tied for second place, and Westervelt, who was thought to be an easy mark, mowed down four runs. The last two of the bunch were scattering hits. The caught out in the first inning, when Fuller went to first on Cooley's double of his grounder and Burke's single. Then he hit a single, and Davis' short fly and Puler went to third and scored on Cooley's smash. Tied at two, he cut off Davis. Ward went out. Hawley to Connor, who hit a single. Burke to Connor, Burke got first on Connor's slow work with his grounder, and stole second, scoring on Davis' sacrifice. Doyle went out. On Davis' sacrifice, Doyle got first. Ward's clean single. Ward got second on a passed ball, and stole third. Ward's first hit to first on his. Tiersan hit to short left field was fielded by Capt. Miller's men until the batter landed on third. Ward and Hulman going home. Ward's single to right field, and he cut out to Dowd. Burke and Davis singled, and scored on Doyle's sharp rap for a base. Attended, 1,800. The score:
